This just in from Akamai - doesn't look like they want to talk any more.

Please put together a chain of title for the patent.

We already knew about the Akamai 167 patent - our claims are still distinguishable over this reference.

We will draft response this weekend but in the meantime please put together the chain of title.

Erick:

Please see the attached correspondence and other materials I'm providing on behalf of Akamai. Once you have had a chance to review, I'll be happy to discuss if you think it would be useful. I'm generally available next week.

Thank you.
